Milford Shopping Update

Murray Hill of the Milford Business Assn advises retail space is in so much demand, there are currently no unleased retail shops in Milford. Readers will be delighted to learn The Booklover bookshop is moving to Milford Road (between Veni Coffee and Ten Japanese restaurant) on 1 September. The Hospice is also going to open one of their popular second-hand goods shops in Shakespeare Rd (previously Premio Meats).

Movie Night – The Hundred Foot Journey

Thanks to all for coming to our August Movie Night. The film and your company were great and MRA now has an extra $990 in the bank.

Milford School's annual productions

MRA was very pleased to make a donation towards Milford School's 2014 musical productions on 16, 17 and 18 September. The junior school will perform The Little Muncher and the senior school will perform Game On. If you are interested in attending one of these, contact the school admin@milford.school.nz.

Theft from St Paul's Church

We were sorry hear that St Paul's Anglican Church in Otakau Road had silverware stolen from the church office on 12 August. Church members are particularly sad that some items had great sentimental value as they had been donated by parishioners over the years. They are irreplaceable. If anyone has any information about these items or the theft at around 1.30pm on Tuesday 12 August, please contact the Police or the Church.
